IN THE COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
FIRST APPELLATE DISTRICT
DIVISION FOUR

THE PEOPLE,

Plaintiff and Respondent,

v.

PARIS KURT RAGLAND, JR.,

Defendant and Appellant.

A157911

(Marin County
Super. Ct. No. SC194558)

Memorandum Opinion

In case No. A153746, following a remand from the Supreme Court, this court remanded the case to the superior court for resentencing. In this separate appeal defendant challenges a victim restitution award on the ground that he was not present at the hearing at which the restitution order was entered or represented by counsel at the hearing. Although the Attorney General contends that defendant forfeited this contention, he takes the following position with respect to the disposition of the present appeal: “[B]ecause this court already has ordered remand for resentencing in Case No. A153476, respondent does not object to the restitution order being vacated and this case being remanded as well, so that the trial court can address the restitution claim in a consolidated sentencing and restitution hearing. This would appear to be the most practical and efficient way of resolving the issues raised in this appeal without the possibility of two separate remands and hearings in the trial court.”

Therefore, the restitution order is hereby vacated and the case is remanded for a consolidated resentencing and restitution hearing.
